

Help when words are hard

SHEET 12 OF 12

USE

Adult-led · Ages approximately 4–12 · Participation is optional
CHOICES

LISTEN · DRAW · MOVE ·
SPEAK · AAC · PASS

REFERENCE

Romans 8:26

PARAPHRASE

When words are hard, God's Spirit helps;
silence and other communication still count.

CONTEXT

Scene: An open window, moving curtains, blank speech bubble, and abstract hands
avoid a literal message. Context: Romans 8 speaks of help in weakness within hope and suffering.

REFLECTION

Invite a gesture, symbol, AAC response, or listening route. Do not treat an impression as a private message from God.

PROMPT

What helps you communicate when words are not available?

IMAGE DESCRIPTION

Open window, moving curtains, wordless speech bubble, and abstract open hands in generous white space.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).