- Parent and leader notes with sources

HOW TO USE

Adult-led · Ages approximately 4–12 · Participation is optional
LISTEN · DRAW · MOVE · SPEAK · AAC · PASS

STOP ANY TIME

You do not have to keep going. We can stop, keep our eyes open, move, draw, get water, or sit with a trusted grown-up.

Prepare the adult reader

Before reading, say: “You may listen, read with me, draw, move, keep your eyes open, ask a question, or pass. We can stop at any time.” Keep a visual first-then sequence in view.

Preview the Scripture, pause cues, and any imagery. In a group, use the host organisation's safeguarding and visibility policy. The reader's words are a guide; the Bible reference is the source to read in context.

Twelve Christian read-aloud scripts

The middle-band script is complete on this page. Each script also carries concrete Younger, Older, and Non-speaking adaptations for the printable book.

STOP

You do not have to keep going. We can stop, keep our eyes open, move, draw, get water, or sit with a trusted grown-up.

ADAPT

You may listen, choose another activity, or pass. Eyes may stay open, and movement or drawing is welcome.

GET HELP

If distress persists, worsens, or affects school, sleep, play, or relationships, contact a qualified professional; use local safeguarding or emergency services for immediate danger.

DO NOT

Do not require eyes closed, stillness, disclosure, or a particular spiritual feeling.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

A wise beginning

REFERENCE

James 1:5; Psalm 143:8

READ ALOUD

Notice the word wisdom. [PAUSE] James says we may ask God for wisdom, not a perfect day. Choose one ordinary decision such as listening, asking, sharing, or trying again.

[PAUSE] You may draw the step or say it quietly. God, guide our choices and help us receive help from people who care. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after the reference.

Pause before the closing prayer.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Retell wisdom as help for a good next step. Offer a first-then picture, a gesture, or listening while the adult prays.

OLDER

Read James 1:5 in its paragraph and invite a general example of wise help before a decision. A private note or pass is welcome.

NON SPEAKING

Offer point-to-choice cards for ask, listen, share, try, or pass. The adult can read every option and accept a gesture or AAC.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

DRAW OR MOVE

Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

LISTEN OR PASS

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

Rooted by a stream

REFERENCE

Psalm 1:1-3

READ ALOUD

Listen for the tree, water, and fruit. [PAUSE] What helps a person grow? Draw one source of care such as Scripture, a trusted adult, rest, or community.

[PAUSE] God, keep us rooted in what is true and help us share good fruit without comparing ourselves. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after the three images.

Pause before naming a source of care.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Use one tree picture and ask what the tree receives. Let the adult colour roots while the child points, listens, or passes.

OLDER

Read the whole psalm and discuss its two ways without calling hardship a failure. Invite a context question or quiet drawing.

NON SPEAKING

Offer picture cards for tree, water, root, care, and pass. The child may arrange cards or use a communication device.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

DRAW OR MOVE

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

LISTEN OR PASS

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

Wonder in creation

REFERENCE

Psalm 19:1-4

READ ALOUD

Choose one detail you can actually see or hear. [PAUSE] How can noticing lead to care rather than collecting a perfect answer? Draw the detail or name it.

[PAUSE] God, teach us wonder and responsibility. Help us appreciate the world and care for a shared place. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause for looking or listening.

Pause before the care response.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Use a leaf, cup, window, or picture. Invite one pointing choice and let the adult name the creation-care response.

OLDER

Read the psalm's poetic claim and its limits. Discuss what attentive observation might invite people to protect or appreciate.

NON SPEAKING

Place two or three object or texture cards within reach. Pointing, eye gaze, a switch, drawing, or pass can answer.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

DRAW OR MOVE

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

LISTEN OR PASS

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

Gratitude with room for honesty

REFERENCE

Psalm 100

READ ALOUD

Notice how the psalm calls people to worship and remember who God is. [PAUSE] Choose one ordinary gift, not a forced happy answer. If today is hard, you may listen.

[PAUSE] God, thank you for what is good; stay near when we are sad or confused. Help our gratitude make room for honest care. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after the choice.

Pause before the closing prayer.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Offer two ordinary objects and let the adult say a short thank-you. The child may choose a colour or pass.

OLDER

Read Psalm 100 as a community song and hold gratitude beside lament. No one needs to name a personal hardship.

NON SPEAKING

Use a two-card choice: thank, or listen. The child may point to an object, draw, use AAC, or keep hands still.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

Draw or move Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

LISTEN OR PASS

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

When fear visits

REFERENCE

Psalm 56:3-4

READ ALOUD

Notice the psalm's honest words: fear is named, not shamed.

[PAUSE] Choose a support picture such as a break, a trusted adult, water, or a safe next step. You may pass.

[PAUSE] God, help us receive care and tell the truth when we need help. Adults will make a practical plan beside prayer. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after naming fear.

Pause while the adult offers support choices.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Do not ask why the child is afraid. Offer a comfort object, a helper picture, drawing, or listening while the adult stays close.

OLDER

Read the surrounding psalm and distinguish trust from pretending danger is absent. Invite a general support plan, never a private event.

NON SPEAKING

Display pause, water, move, trusted adult, and pass cards. Accept eye gaze, pointing, AAC, or a quiet parallel activity.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

DRAW OR MOVE

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

LISTEN OR PASS

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

Jesus welcomes children

REFERENCE

Mark 10:13-16

READ ALOUD

Notice who tries to stop the children and what Jesus does. [PAUSE]
What would welcome look like in a fictional classroom or family? You may point, act, draw, or pass.

[PAUSE] Jesus, teach us to receive children with dignity. Help adults make room with good boundaries and care. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after the two adult actions.

Pause before naming welcome.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Retell the welcome in two sentences and offer an open-door picture. The adult models making room without asking for a response.

OLDER

Read the scene in context and discuss how welcome includes access, boundaries, and safeguarding. Questions may stay private.

NON SPEAKING

Offer choices for seat, tool, distance, and communication. Pointing or AAC can show a welcoming choice; pass remains available.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

Draw or move Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

DRAW OR MOVE

Listen or pass Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

LISTEN OR PASS

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

Listen, then act

REFERENCE

James 1:19-25

READ ALOUD

Choose a neutral story situation: two people want the same tool.

[PAUSE] What could careful listening sound like? You may role-play, draw, or pass.

[PAUSE] God, help us hear and do what is good without shaming mistakes. Help us repair harm with wise adult support. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after the neutral situation.

Pause before the prayer.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Use listen and act picture cards. Let the adult model waiting, taking turns, and asking for help.

OLDER

Read the image of hearing and doing. Invite one general practice such as ask, listen, repair, or seek counsel.

NON SPEAKING

Use a turn-taking object and two response cards. A child can hand over the object, point, gesture, use AAC, or pass.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

DRAW OR MOVE

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

LISTEN OR PASS

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

Love of neighbour

REFERENCE

Luke 10:25-37

READ ALOUD

Notice what the helper does and what support he receives. [PAUSE]
Caring does not mean going somewhere unsafe alone. Choose a fictional helpful action: tell a trusted adult, share a seat, or include someone.

[PAUSE] God, make our love practical and wise. Help us seek support when a situation exceeds us. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after the helper's actions.

Pause before choosing a safe response.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Retell one helping action and point to the adult who can help. Avoid frightening details and use a neutral picture.

OLDER

Read the whole parable and discuss compassion, consent, justice, and safety together. Keep examples fictional.

NON SPEAKING

Offer broad cards for tell, include, wait, ask, and pass. A child can arrange a community map using places, not names.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

DRAW OR MOVE

Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

LISTEN OR PASS

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

A truthful thought

REFERENCE

Philippians 4:4-9

READ ALOUD

Listen for the list in the passage. [PAUSE] Sort two fictional examples: one true and kind, one unkind or untrue. You may move the cards, draw, or pass.

[PAUSE] God, guide our attention and our words. Help us tell the truth and choose kindness on a difficult day. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after reading the list.

Pause during the fictional sort.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Choose between two neutral pictures: kind or unkind. The adult names the difference and accepts listening.

OLDER

Read verses 4-9, not the list alone, and notice joy, gentleness, prayer, and practice together. A general question is enough.

NON SPEAKING

Place true, kind, and pass symbols on the table. Pointing, matching, drawing, or an AAC word can show a response.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

DRAW OR MOVE Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

LISTEN OR PASS Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

Jesus is present in trouble

REFERENCE

John 16:33

READ ALOUD

Notice that Jesus does not pretend trouble is absent. [PAUSE]
Choose support that belongs beside prayer: a break, a trusted adult, or a practical plan. You may ask a question or pass.

[PAUSE] Jesus, teach us peace that can tell the truth. Help us stay connected and courageous while adults seek wise care. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after trouble is named.

Pause while support choices are shown.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Use a gentle picture of an adult nearby. The child may draw a helping hand, listen, move, or pass.

OLDER

Read the verse in its farewell-discourse setting and discuss presence versus an easy circumstance. Keep the response general.

NON SPEAKING

Offer support cards for break, adult, plan, and pass. Accept a point, eye gaze,
AAC selection, or movement away.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

DRAW OR MOVE

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

LISTEN OR PASS

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

Come and learn from Jesus

REFERENCE

Matthew 11:28-30

READ ALOUD

Notice the invitation and the word gentle. [PAUSE] Choose one practical help: water, a break, asking, or a quiet place. This is not a claim that every problem disappears.

[PAUSE] Jesus, teach us to receive and give wise care. Help adults respond gently to a child's burden. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause after the invitation.

Pause before naming practical help.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Offer a backpack picture and two helper choices. A caregiver can read while the child holds a comfort object or listens.

OLDER

Read the paragraph and consider what Jesus asks people to learn. Invite a question about gentleness without a personal disclosure.

NON SPEAKING

Use cards for water, break, ask, quiet, and pass. The child may select one, use AAC, draw, or keep a hands-busy activity.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

Draw or move Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

LISTEN OR PASS

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).

A small response

REFERENCE

Romans 12:1-2; Philippians 4:8

READ ALOUD

Romans 12 speaks of a renewed mind, and Philippians names truthful attention. [PAUSE] Pick one fictional next step: include, ask, repair, rest, or leave it blank.

[PAUSE] God, shape our choices toward love. Give us wisdom, humility, and courage to practise what we learn. Amen.

PAUSES

Pause before the choice.

Pause before the closing prayer.

ADAPTATIONS

YOUNGER

Offer pictures for listen, help, tell the truth, draw, and rest. Let the adult model one small response.

OLDER

Read both references in context and discuss renewal as discernment and service, not suppression of emotion. A deliberate pause is valid.

NON SPEAKING

Use a next-step board with five pictures and pass. Pointing, matching, drawing, or AAC can complete the activity.

CHOICES

SAY OR POINT

Say one word, point to a detail, or let the adult speak.

DRAW OR MOVE

Draw the response, use a gesture, or move while listening.

LISTEN OR PASS

Listen with eyes open or pass without explaining.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).
