

Restored path

SHEET 04 OF 08

USE

Adult-led · Ages approximately
4–12 · Participation is optional
CHOICES

LISTEN · DRAW · MOVE ·
SPEAK · AAC · PASS

REFERENCE

Psalm 23:3
PARAPHRASE

The shepherd poem says the tired person is renewed and led along a trustworthy path.

CONTEXT

The poem moves from rest toward a path, showing guidance as a relationship rather than a shortcut.

REFLECTION

Follow the path with a finger or describe its direction. No answer, caption, or finished drawing is required.

PROMPT

Which way does the path travel? You may follow it, draw another path, or pass.

IMAGE DESCRIPTION

Curving path through low hills toward a sunrise with a bird overhead.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).