REFERENCE

Psalm 23:6
PARAPHRASE

The poem ends by imagining goodness and mercy traveling with the speaker toward a lasting home with God.

CONTEXT

The final image gathers the poem's movement into a hope of belonging, not a promise of a perfect ending.

REFLECTION

Compare the first path and this road. A child may draw, listen, point, or pass without displaying the finished page.

PROMPT

What changes between the first path and this road? You may compare pictures, draw, or pass.

IMAGE DESCRIPTION

Road with small flowers, two animals, and an open-door home in the distance.

Our paraphrase, not Scripture text. Exact wording: World English Bible (public domain).
